

Pembroke-King's Programme
University of Cambridge

2012 Programme Fees

Tuition Fee: £2,312

Accommodation Fee: from £1,586 (Band 1) to £2,102 (Band 5)

Included in the programme fees:

Academics

- Three lecture courses (25 contact hours each)
- Access to Pembroke and King's College libraries and the University Library
- Course readers provided for most courses
- A series of lively plenary lectures

Housing and meals

- Eight weeks' accommodation in single occupancy College rooms
- Meal plan providing credit for approximately ten meals per week
- Five formal dinners in College dining Halls

Extra-curricular activities and welfare

- A four-day field trip to Scotland (transport, accommodation and partial meal plan; visits to Richmond Castle and Fountains Abbey en route; a full programme of daily activities in Edinburgh)
- A day trip to London (transport and tickets to the Globe Theatre, option to join guided activities)
- A daily programme of social activities organised by a team of current Cambridge students
- College nurse offering regular surgery hours

<http://www.pem.cam.ac.uk/ip/pkp/>
