

2027 Undergraduate Admission Guidelines for International Students

Peking University Health Science Center

Note: This English translation is for reference only. For official application, please refer to the Chinese version of the admission guidelines and its attachments (available at the website of the Office of International Cooperation: <http://oic.bjmu.edu.cn/>).

I. Programs, Duration, and Main Courses

1. Clinical Medicine, 6-year program (Chinese-taught)
2. Stomatology, 5-year program (Chinese-taught)

Main Courses:

Mathematics, Physics, Inorganic Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, Biology, Human Anatomy, Histology and Embryology, Physiology, Biochemistry, Microbiology, Immunology, Pathology, Pharmacology, Cell Biology, Diagnostics, Medical Imaging, Internal Medicine, Surgery, Obstetrics and Gynecology, Pediatrics, Ophthalmology, Otorhinolaryngology, Dermatology and Venereology, Cariology and Endodontics, Periodontology, Pediatric Dentistry, Preventive Dentistry, Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, Prosthodontics, Orthodontics, etc.

II. Eligibility

1. Applicants must be non-Chinese citizens holding a valid ordinary foreign passport and must comply with the relevant provisions of the Nationality Law of the People's Republic of China.

For applicants who obtained foreign nationality at birth while either parent or both parents were Chinese citizens at the time of birth, or who were originally residents of the Chinese mainland (the Mainland), Hong Kong, Macao or Taiwan and later emigrated and acquired foreign nationality, they must meet the requirements of the Ministry of Education document "Jiao Wai Han [2020] No. 12" and submit the corresponding supporting documents as required by the university's admission requirements. Whether an applicant simultaneously holds foreign nationality and the nationality of the People's Republic of China shall be subject to the nationality determination conclusion made by the relevant administrative department of the Chinese public security authorities.

- (1) For applicants who obtained foreign nationality at birth, where both parents were Chinese citizens or one of the parents was a Chinese citizen at the time of birth, the parents (the Chinese citizen parent) must have obtained permanent residence abroad before the applicant's birth, and the applicant must have a record of actual residence abroad of more than 2 years during the period from April 30, 2023 to April 30, 2027 (actual residence abroad of 9 months or more in one year may be counted as one year, based on entry and exit stamps).
- (2) For residents of the Chinese mainland (the Mainland), Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan who apply as international students after emigrating and acquiring foreign nationality, they must have obtained foreign nationality before April 30, 2023, and must have a record of actual residence abroad of more than 2 years during the period from April 30, 2023 to April 30, 2027 (actual residence abroad of 9 months or more in one year may be counted as one year, based on entry and exit stamps).

2. Aged between 18 and 25, with a high school diploma or above.
3. In good health and meeting the admission requirements of the corresponding program.

III. Application Procedures

Part I Self-funded Students

The application and admission tests will be conducted in two batches this year.

(1) Online Application

1. Application Time and Procedure

First batch: December 1, 2026 – February 26, 2027;

Second batch: March 1, 2027 – March 31, 2027.

Register and log onto the International Students Admission Platform of Peking University Health Science Center at <http://bjmu.studyatpku.com/> to fill in the application form and upload scanned documents.

2. Required Documents

- (1) System profile photo, which must be a recent standard ID photo.
- (2) Passport photo page and visa page (if any).
- (3) Graduation certificate of the previous stage (notarized copy).
- (4) Academic transcript of the previous stage (notarized copy) and CSCA score report (or SAT/ACT/IB/A-Level score reports that meet the equivalent requirements).
- (5) Physical examination results (including basic health check-up items and hepatic function test report).
- (6) For Clinical Medicine: HSK Level 5 certificate; for Stomatology: HSK Level 6 certificate.
- (7) Proof of financial capability of at least RMB 400,000 (an official bank statement showing the account balance is required; other proofs are not acceptable).
- (8) Other materials: the Candidate's Application Commitment Letter and the Guarantee Letter on Nationality Status; applicants under 18 also need to provide identity proof of their guardian; other supplementary materials, etc.

3. Requirements for CSCA or Equivalent Test Score Reports

Applicants shall submit a valid CSCA score report (a CSCA score report is generally valid for 2 years). The required subjects are: STEM Chinese, Mathematics (Chinese language), Physics (Chinese language), Chemistry (Chinese language).

Starting from 2027, self-funded applicants applying for undergraduate programs of PKUHSC may also submit the following four types of score reports (meeting any one of them is sufficient).

Applicants who meet the corresponding standards may be deemed to have reached an equivalent level, which will be used for eligibility review. Details are as follows:

- (1) SAT: total score of no less than 1400, and AP scores in Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry, with each no less than 4;
- (2) ACT: composite score of no less than 30, and AP scores in Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry, with each no less than 4;
- (3) IB: having obtained the IB Diploma, with HL Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry, and a total score of no less than 36;
- (4) A-Level: the subjects taken must include Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry, with grades of no less than ABB.

4. Nationality-related Documents

- (1) Applicants who obtained foreign nationality at birth while either parent or both parents were Chinese citizens at the time of birth shall provide: ① proof that the applicant obtained foreign nationality at birth; ② proof of permanent residence abroad of the parent(s) (the Chinese citizen parent) before the applicant's birth; if such proof cannot be provided, the applicant's own relevant nationality certification documents must be submitted; ③ entry and exit records between April 30, 2023 and April 30, 2027; ④ the Guarantee Letter on Nationality Status.
- (2) Applicants who were originally Chinese citizens and acquired foreign nationality after emigrating shall provide: ① certificate of renunciation of Chinese nationality; ② certificate of cancellation of Chinese household registration; ③ proof of acquisition of foreign nationality; ④ entry and exit records between April 30, 2023 and April 30, 2027; ⑤ the Guarantee Letter on Nationality Status.

5. Notes for Online Submission of Application Materials

- (1) Materials shall be prepared as PDF documents before uploading (items 3–8). All materials must be clear and legible; otherwise, the application will be returned.
- (2) “Graduation certificate and academic transcript of the previous stage” refers to the high school diploma and complete high school transcripts for applicants applying with a high school background, or the university diploma and complete university transcripts for applicants applying with a university background. Final-year students shall provide a pre-graduation certificate; if admitted, the original graduation certificate must be presented upon registration.
- (3) For incomplete materials, the system will notify applicants to submit supplementary materials. For the first batch, the deadline is March 5, 2027; for the second batch, the deadline is April 5, 2027. No supplementary materials will be accepted after the deadline.

(2) Admission Interview

The university will comprehensively evaluate the previous academic records and CSCA scores (or SAT/ACT/IB/A-Level score reports meeting the equivalent requirements) submitted by applicants, and select qualified candidates for the interview. Interviews are all conducted online and in Chinese.

1. Interview Arrangements:

- (1) Format: online interview, in Chinese.
- (2) Content: mainly assesses the applicant's language expression, logical thinking, practical skills, communication and coordination abilities, psychological quality, professional interests, etc.
- (3) Time: first batch, March 13, 2027; second batch, April 17, 2027. The specific time will be notified separately.

2. Application Fee

All applicants must pay a non-refundable application fee of RMB 800 before attending the interview. Applicants who fail to pay the application fee on time will not be able to attend the admission interview. Payment methods will be notified separately.

(3) Admission and Enrollment

1. The university will make admission decisions based on the applicants' previous academic records, CSCA scores (or SAT/ACT/IB/A-Level score reports meeting the equivalent requirements) and interview results. After the admission process is completed, the admission list will be announced on the notice board of the Office of International Cooperation's official website: <http://oic.bjmu.edu.cn/>
2. The International Student Division will send the Admission Notice, visa application form and other documents in June 2027.

(4) Enrollment Time and Registration

Late August or early September 2027; the exact date is subject to the Admission Notice. New students of the Class of 2027 shall promptly complete the procedures for a visa or residence permit and register at the university on the date specified in the Admission Notice.

Part II Chinese Government Scholarship Students

1. Applicants applying for the Chinese Government Scholarship must take the "China Scholastic Competency Assessment (hereinafter referred to as the CSCA)" organized by the China Scholarship Council (CSC) of the Ministry of Education of China and submit valid scores (sent to isd@bjmu.edu.cn). Applicants may visit the official CSCA website (<https://www.csc.cn>) to check the specific test dates and content.

Applicants applying for Clinical Medicine or Stomatology must take the following three subjects of the CSCA: Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry. The test language may be either Chinese or English.

2. Application route: this scholarship (Type A country program) must be applied for through the dispatching authorities of the applicant's country (such as the Chinese embassy or consulate).

Please consult the relevant authorities in advance for specific arrangements. Applicants must register on the “Chinese Government Scholarship Information System for Studying in China” (studyinchina.csc.edu.cn), select “Type A” when filling in the application form, and list Peking University as the first-choice institution.

3. Candidates who have been referred to our university by the China Scholarship Council must pass our university’s qualification review and interview before obtaining pre-admission status.

IV. Fees and Notes

1. Tuition: RMB 45,000 per academic year per person.
2. Accommodation: due to the shortage of university dormitories, self-funded new undergraduate students will not be provided with on-campus accommodation and must rent housing off campus on their own; the university will provide appropriate assistance.
3. Insurance: RMB 800 per person per year. According to the regulations of the Ministry of Education of China, all international students must purchase comprehensive medical insurance for international students in China before they can complete student registration.
4. Costs for textbooks, medical expenses, transportation and meals shall be borne by the students themselves.

V. Contact Information

Mailing Address: International Student Division, Office of International Cooperation, Peking University Health Science Center, No. 38 Xueyuan Road, Haidian District, Beijing, China

Postal Code: 100191

Telephone: +86-10-82801253; 82802436; 62010361

Email: isd@bjmu.edu.cn

University Website: <http://www.bjmu.edu.cn/> | Office of International Cooperation Website: <http://oic.bjmu.edu.cn/>

VI. Additional Information

The International Student Division is located in the International Cooperation and Exchange Center. It is responsible for the admission and academic management of international students and provides consultation and services regarding admission, visa and residence permits, academic guidance, medical insurance, etc. The Dormitory Management Office is located in the international student dormitory and is responsible for the property management and services of the student apartments.